last day to pay May 4th

The Ranch at Fossil Creek is located in the beautiful mountain setting of Strawberry, which is located 21.1 miles from the center of Payson. The Ranch at Fossil Creek is a working ranch and they raise llamas and dairy goats. This is also the home of Fossil Creek Creamery, where they make delicious and healthy artisan goat's milk cheeses and fudge.

First stop on the guided tour is the Ranch where you'll meet the llamas & dairy goats. You can gambol with the goats and will hear about llamas and the properties of their wool.

Next, your guided tour takes you inside the new, certified creamery. This tour of the creamery is an opportunity to hear about the process of turning goat milk into cheese and fudge. Then you will have a chance to sample and purchase the artisan goat milk cheeses and creamy, delicious fudge. Tour lasts approximately 1½ hour.

Goat's Milk Fudge

from fresh goat's milk, it produces creamy, delicious fudge & comes in the several flavors.

Creamy Chevre Goat's Milk Cheese

is available plain or with the following fresh herbs: Dill, Chives, Basil or Fennel.

Dessert Cheese

a creamy cheese with Raspberry or Pear with Anise

Goat Milk Soap & Crème

containing wonderful coconut oil, palm oil, jojoba oil or sweet almond oil

Directions: Drive north through Payson and Pine until you get to Strawberry. After entering Strawberry, you will curve to the right. Look for the Strawberry Lodge on your left. Turn left after the Lodge and you will be on Fossil Creek Rd. Continue on Fossil Creek Rd. through Strawberry. At about 2.5 miles you will curve left. About .7 miles from the left curve, you will be at the Fossil Creek Creamery, on your left.

Your trip leaders will once again be Goat Herders Joe & Hans who can be reached at
